

A Message to Noah

FROM THE VLC STUDENTS

Hi Noah!

This is a collection of messages from VLC students placed across Canada and internationally. When Mustafa Butt brought your story up, we all felt like we had to do something for you. Even if this collection of messages just makes you smile, we hope it can be a source of comfort for you and your family. We all want you to know that every single one of us, scattered far and wide, is here supporting you through your hard times.

-Haniyah Ali and Bryce McRae
Student Council Vice President and President

Hey man,

I wish I had the words to tell you how sad, angry, and shocked I am at knowing this happened. Holding back tears when I saw you at the hospital was the hardest thing I've ever done. You are and always will be the brother I never had, no matter what. I am praying and will continue to pray for you.

Stay strong my man,
Mustafa

Dear Noah,

I heard about the horrible news, and it really hit me in the feels :(I do hope you feel better. I know this can be a tough situation for you, but have patience I know you will come through. The Prophet Muhammad (S.A.W) said: "Know that victory comes with patience, relief with affliction, and ease with hardship."

Feel well soon,
Muhammad Zurar (Friend of Mustafa
Butt)

Get well soon Noah!

No sickness can keep you down with all the prayers I offer for your recovery. Rise up and be strong!

May the angels of good health visit your sick bed and raise you from every sickness. You are not in this alone everyone has to face something in life they don't want to or they never thought of Keep hope in yourself and watch you will get through this in a short time :)

-Iman Amjad

Dear Noah,

I'm really sorry to hear about this incident. Remember that God tests those who he loves, so stay strong and don't forget that no matter what you have to go through it's just a test and the way to pass this test is with patience. I understand that this could be a really hard time for you and your family, but just stay strong. I know you can do it! I pray you are blessed with a speedy recovery.

Sincerely,
Ayah Zurar

Yo dude,

I'm so sorry to hear what happened to you. It was probably a really big shock because even though you hear it on the news or hear about it, you wouldn't expect it to happen to you.

"You are a strong, determined person and I know that this accident will not get you down. I hope you heal quickly and get back to life as quickly as possible."

-Juwayriyyah Alam :P

Hi Noah,

I'm very sorry to hear about what happened, and I wish you and your family the best! I don't know you personally, but I heard a lot about you from Mustafa (don't worry, it was all good things ^.^). Again, I'm really sorry about what happened, and I wish you a speedy recovery :)

Kind regards,
Kaitlin Zeldenrust

Hey Noah,

I'm really really sorry you had to go through this and I can't imagine the kind of pain and hurt you must be going through right now. I honestly hope you get better really really soon and that you have a lot of support from people around you. I wish I could meet you so we could be friends cuz you seem super cool! It hurts my heart to know people can be so cruel :/ but also people can be kind as well and I hope you experience a lot of love as you recover. It's cool you might see this :-)

You're doing great and are super brave to keep fighting!

-Alicia Moore

Stay strong! You have so many people looking out for you! Be brave and get well soon!

-Rebekah Calder

Hi Noah,
I really feel sorry for you and your family cause this must be a hard time especially since this wasn't teenagers, they were big, mean men who didn't have anything better to do. Hope you recover fully soon, and remember, anyone who can't pick on their own size, doesn't know what they are doing.

-Isa Hajiyev

Hi Noah,

I'm really sorry to hear what happened, had to happen to you. No one should ever have to feel that pain, or hurt. I hope you get well soon!!! And I hope those people get caught for you sake, and many others. Get well soon Noah!!! ☐ ✌

-Yvonne ♥ VanLaren

Dear Noah,

Hearing your story is a moving experience, and I am so sorry for what you have had to go through. I believe there is something greater in this though, a powerful good that can blossom from the pain and fear. Maybe this enables you to interact with people you would not otherwise, or lives you would not be able to touch if this did not happen. No matter what, use this horrific event to bring about something positive - even the sharing of your story inspires others, like me. :)

Stay strong, and get better soon!

Hi Noah,

I'm sorry to hear about what happened to you, and it's very saddening to know that these hateful crimes still happen simply because of who you are. Don't let it deter you from being yourself, and stay strong in this difficult time of yours :) I hope you get better soon and have a full recovery, and most importantly, stay patient in this test that you're going through. Remember that anything difficult you go through is followed by something better and easier than it :)

Take care!

Sincerely,
Ahmad Taghleb

Noah, I am very sorry to hear about what happened to you. It really bothers me that in Canada people are still being so terrible to each other, and there is still so much hate and prejudice. I know that while your story makes me sad, it will also inspire me to be a better person, and to do my best to eliminate hate and prejudice in Canada.

I hope that you have a fast and comfortable recovery!

All the best!

Jessica McGaughey

Hi Noah,

I think I speak for our entire school in wishing you a speedy recovery with no complications! I am very glad to read on the news that your skull surgery was successful.
